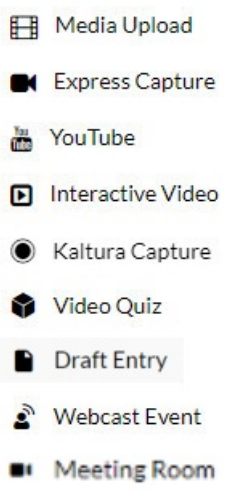
+Add New menu

This article is designated for all users.

Use the +Add New tools to create media from scratch! New media is automatically uploaded to your My Media library.

The following instructions pertain to the Kaltura Video Portal V2UI. For instances using the Theming design system, please check out Create Media for guidance.

Simply click + Add New to see the list of options for adding media.



Depending on what is enabled on your environment, your + Add New menu may look slightly different. If there is an option missing, please contact your Kaltura administrator to discuss how to enable it on your environment.
